SUICIDE OF A YOUNG LADY.

Miss Maude Gertrude Smith of Galveston Deliberately Ends Her Own Life, No Cause Assigned

Galveston, Tex., July 28.-A deplorable ulcide occurred to-day at the residence of Mrs. Maude Smith, corner of avenue O and Twenty-first street. The sulcider was Miss Man., Gertrude Smith, the beautifu seventeen-year-old daughter of Mrs. Smith No cause ascertained. The girl arese late his morning, but to all outward appearance was bright and Lappy and no act or word aroused any suspicion that she contemplated anything rash. At 12:30 she was in her bed-chamber with her aunt and was engaged in making her toilet, all the time gaily chatting with her aunt, who had her back turned to her nicce. All at once the girl ceased her chatter and in the next instant her aunt was startled at the report of a pistol, and turning quickly saw her nicce standing beore the mirror with the smoking pistol in her hand and blood spouting from her left breast. A sister down stairs went bounding up the stairs. As she entered the room the dying girl with a smile on her face staggered toward her, threw her arms around her horwith her, thew her arms around her hor-rified sister and died. The ball, which was from a 32-caliber pistol, penetrated the breast and ranged downward. The family is prostrated with grief. Every character of rumor as to the cause of the shooting is affoat, but to give them currency might be an injustice to the deed girl and cause unpresserve an to the dead girl and cause unnecessary anguish to the family. She is a native of Algiers, La., and her father. Capt. Alonzo Smith, has been for many years connected with the Morgan steamship line.

Miss Smith was considered rather eccentric for a girl of her age, and was inclined to fits of melancholy, and always slept with the little pistol with which she ended her life under her pillow.

Coroner Spann began an investigation of the case, but after the examination of one witness adjourned further proceedings until to-morrow. The witness examined was Miss Lottie Shae. The girl testified that she entered Miss Maude's room shortly after 12 o'clock for the purpose of dressing herself; that Maude at that time was in the act of doing the same thing, and appeared in her usual mood. She never heard any intimation then or before, that she contemplated suicide; that a few moments after she entered the room she saw her with the pistol in hand pointing at her breast, saw the flash, heard the report and saw her fall and that she died i

Scares Crisp's Friends.

pecial to the Gazene.
Washington, July 28.—The latest news on Jerry Simpson has caused consterna on in the speakership camp. He is down in Arkansas, but he has sent a message to in Arransas, but he has sent a message to this city, which, to say the last, has scared the friends of Crisp. The following is Simpson's letter: "You can say for me, Jerry Simpson, that the Alliance men in the next congress will have a candidate for speaker. We will nominate him in caucus and we will vote for him on the floor. That has been decided on, and you can give me as authority for the statement. We have at least twenty Alliance men who will go t least twenty Alliance men who will go our caucus. The nominee will be Co F. Livingstone of Georgia. A deorgia men are inclined, except from Watson, to vote for Crisp or the reason of state pride, but the North, scluding five Alliance men from Kaasas wo from Nebraska, two from Minnesota two from Nebraska, two from Minnesota and there or four others, will call on their Southern brethren to caucus with them. They will come of course. The North will suggest Livingstone's name, and we have votes to nominate him, too. The South will most assuredly stand at our backs in appreciation of the honor we pay the distinguished representativ #of this section of the Union. Every Al' mae man in the Georgia de' ga-Every All ance man in the Georgia deloga-tion, Watson included will support Living-stone on the floor of the house. He will get all the A iance votes, and why shouldn't hel The colonel is one of the most able men in the coun-try. A fine parliamentarian and a natural try. A fine parliamentarian and a natural leader of men. The Southern people think a great deal of Col. Livingstone, and will not be insensible to the compliment bestowed upon him. This will not help Crisp's chances, I bow. I suppose a candidate for the speakership must must onecessity have the support of the members of congress from his own state. Crisp's chances of success bers of congress from his own state. Crisp's chances of success will not be bettered if the Alliance men from Gangia indorse Livingstone. What to we care for that! What's Crisp to us He's no more than any other Democrat. As I said before, we will have a candidate named in regular causes. Col. Livingstone will be the man, and every Alliance man will vote for im, too. That is settled on thus far in advance of the session."

The Star prints to-day an article on the speakership candidates in which the report that Cleveland's influence had been exerted for Mills is deprecated with some warmth of interest in behalf of Crisp, while the unadvisability of mixing up the question of presidential candidates with that of speakership candidates is dwelt upon. The av-gument developed is one against the caudidacy of Mills.

dacy of Mills.

As: matter of fact, in the talk about speakership candidates the only reference to outside influence first heard were those making Crisp the preference of Hill men, but that seemed very soon to be attributa-ble to the desire on the part of Hill's admirers to secure more Southern friends for Hill, in consideration of his willingness to encourage a speakership candidate. So far as the candidates are concerned neither Mills nor Crisp nor Bynum nor Springer has personally told anybody that he is pre-ferred by Cleveland or anybody else out ferred by Cleveland or anybody eise out of the next congress. If Democrats are to elect a speaker in December because he happens merely to be for this or that man for president, the blunder may be found to be a fatal one before the convention of 1892 is called. The wrong man in the speaker's chair from December to June make the nomination of the Demo e party a matter of v ry small conse

Boston Beats Australia.

San Francisco, Cal., July 29.—George Dixon of Boston and Abe Willis of Australia fought at the gymnasium of the California athletic club to-night for a purse of $5000 and the bantam weight championship of the world. Willis was practically unknown to many here, and the betting before the fight was in Dixon's favor, ranging from 100 to 70 and 100 to 90. Great interest was taken in the fight here and the club room was well filled. The men had trained faithfully and both were in perfect condition. Hiram Cook was referee. Dixon's seconds were Tim O'Rourke, Mitchell and Billy Akers, Willis was seconded by Martin Murphy and Billy Smith. The contestants appeared in the ring soon after $:30 o'clock and time was called at $:43. In the first round the men sparred cautiously for fully a minute, Dixon showing the greater advantage in reach. Then Dixon led and caught Willis on the jaw, sending him down. When he rose there was the liveliest kind of rally, the men slugging each other at close quarters. Dixon plainly having the best of it. Willis hugged as much as possi-

The fifth round was opened like the others. Each seemed disposed at first to rush matters. Toward the close there was rush manners. Toward the close there was a sharp raily near the ropes, in which it was give and take for a moment, though Dixon was plainly landing harder and oftener. He fell heavil, and lay like a log when the ten seconds had expired. Willis' seconds had to lift him from the floor, and Dixon was declared the winner. The Sullivan-Slavin Fight. Charley Johnson, who has always backed John L. Sullivan in his matches, and Arthur Lumley, editor of the Illustrated News, have deposited a thousand dollars with the New York Herald as a forfeit for a fight between the champion and Frank Slavin, the Australian. It will be remembered that Slavin was very anxious to sign arti-cles of agreement to fight Sullivan when the former was in this country a month ago. He even talked of following Sullivan to Australia and getting him to sign there. He was, however, talked out of the notion of fighting Sullivan by Charley Mitchell and Pony Moore, and sailed for England before anything was done. Just before salling he expressed a desire to meet Sullivan, and as he has since had a break with both Mitchell and Moore, the probabilities are that he will cable $1000 to cover John

LOUISVILLE, KY., July 28.—Proctor Knott, at one time the most famous horse on the turf and still the pride of Kentucky, is ill from lung fever. In making the trip from Chirago to Saratoga he contracted cold, which developed into a most dangerous disease. Hiram Scoggins, one of the brothers who owns him, received a letter from a reterinarian at Saratoga this morning saying the chances for Proctor's recovery were about even. The famous gelding's career on the turf is probably ended. It is the history of the turf that no horse with lung fover ever amounted to anything afterward. The disease leaves "touched" a fatal defect in a race horse.

Judge Burke called his motion docket today. Sam Mays, a negro burglar, was granted a new trial, and Mary Mitchell and Clara Wilson, convicted of robbery, were sentenced in Judge Tucker's court. Laura Wicks, a colored girl charged with infanticide, was admitted to ball in the sum of $1500, which she readily furnished. THIEF ARRESTED.

Ike Thomas, a negro who is given a bad reputation by the police, was charged with burglary and theft in Justice Lauderdale's court. Dr. J. G. Pike was the complaining witness, and Ike had stripped his office of many articles of value. He was held in $1000 to the grand jury FIGURE 15 THE POWER.

There promises to be a lively row between President Klein and the city council, ever alleged usurpation of authority on his part in adjourning the council last Saturday vening because there was not a quorum resent. The matter will come up at the next meeting, and some lively sparring is anticipated. New York parties are negotiating for a controlling interest in the Elm street cable railroad. If they secure control the road will be completed at once. If not, it will remain at a standstill for some time to come, remain at a standatill for some time to come, as the creditors are making it interesting for the company.

A DESERTER.

Frank Carroll, a young man in the county jail awaiting transportation to the Rusk penitentlary to serve two years for forgery, is a member of a prominent Boston family, and his father is a colonel in the regular army. The young fellow deserted from the army and landed in the county iall a year ago for the theft of a county jail a year ago for the theft of a watch. He became a trusty in the jail and forged a check on Sheriff Lewis. Carroll is an alias. His friends sent a lawyer here from Massachusetts to get him out of the scrape, but the evidence was too strong. An effort will be made to secure a pardon for the young man.
